

Cătălin Albu

Professor of Accounting

Department of Accounting and Auditing

Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Romania

catalin.albu@cig.ase.ro

Cătălin has a master's degree from the University of Orléans, France, and a PhD from Bucharest University of Economic Studies. His main research interests focus on the application of various techniques and frameworks of Western origin in emerging markets. He is 2010 Senior Fulbright Grantee at the University of Dayton, OH, KPMG Professor and Visiting Professor at ESSEC Business School. Cătălin has published articles in, among others, Critical Perspectives on Accounting, Journal of International Financial Management and Accounting, Australian Accounting Review, Accounting in Europe, Information Systems Management, and Journal of Accounting in Emerging Economies. He serves on the editorial board of Accounting Forum and Journal of International Accounting, Auditing and Taxation. Cătălin is also the main organizer of the International Conference Accounting and Management Information Systems organized by the Bucharest University of Economic Studies, Romania, since 2006.