

Saverio Bozzolan

Prof. of Accounting
Department of Business and Management
LUISS University
Roma
sbozzolan@luiss.it

Saverio is Professor of Accounting and Director of the MSc in Accounting, Finance and Management Control at Luiss University. Before joining LUISS, he was Professor of Accounting at the University of Padova. Saverio earned his PhD in Business Economics from Cà Foscari University (1998).

His research interests are in corporate governance (with a focus on family firms), corporate disclosure, risk management and the links between financial reporting and capital markets. He teaches MSc, MBA, Ph.D. and executive courses in the areas of corporate governance, financial reporting and financial statement analysis.

Saverio's research has been published in various academic journals including the European Accounting Review, Journal of Business Ethics, Journal of Accounting Auditing and Finance, The International Journal of Accounting, the European Journal of Finance, Corporate Social Responsibility and Environmental Management, Journal of Intellectual Capital. He has co-authored also several textbooks on financial reporting issues.

He is currently Associate Editor of Accounting and Business Research, Editor of The International Journal of Accounting, and member of the Editorial Board of Accounting Forum and Journal of Accounting and Public Policy. In the past he served as editorial board member of the European Accounting Review (2007 – 2011).

Before this role in the Management Committee, Saverio has served the EAA as member of the Management Committee as Treasurer (2016 - 2018), Book Review Editor (2012 – 2015), and member of the Scientific Committee for several Annual Congresses.