

Elisavet Mantzari is Associate Professor in Accounting at the University of Birmingham, UK.

Elisavet obtained her PhD in Accounting and Financial Management from the University of Portsmouth, UK.

Elisavet has experience with implementing DEI actions through her involvement in DEI committees in higher education and trade unions, and other accounting associations. She sees the DEIC as an opportunity to enhance diversity, inclusion, equity, and justice within the EAA through initiatives that educate and equitably empower the community. Her research is broadly concerned with financial accounting regulation and practice, and sustainability accounting in diverse contexts including alternative organisations such as co-operatives.