

Joanna Krasodomska is an Associate Professor in the Department of Financial Accounting at the Krakow University of Economics. She holds a habilitation degree in economics with a specialization in finance. Joanna is an Associate Editor of Accounting in Europe and Sustainable Development, and serves on the editorial board of Accounting Forum. She represents Poland on the Board of the EAA and was a member of the EAA Stakeholder Reporting Committee from 2020 to 2025. Joanna also collaborates with the Accountants Association in Poland, where she serves on the Committee for International Collaboration, as well as with the Polish Chamber of Statutory Auditors. She completed research visits at the Adam Smith Business School, University of Glasgow (UK), under the Dekaban-Liddle Fellowship Programme, as well as at Ca' Foscari University of Venice (Italy) and the University of Brescia (Italy). Her research focuses on sustainability reporting regulation and standardization, stakeholder engagement, and sustainability reporting assurance. Her work has been published in leading international journals, including Organization & Environment, Accounting, Auditing & Accountability Journal, Accounting in Europe, Journal of International Financial Management & Accounting, Meditari Accountancy Research, Sustainability Accounting, Management & Policy Journal, and Corporate Sustainability & Environmental Management, among others.