

Faculty Positions in Accounting at CEIBS (All Ranks)

The China Europe International Business School (CEIBS) invites applications for faculty positions in Accounting in the Department of Finance and Accounting. Successful applicants are expected to teach related courses to graduate students. CEIBS' working language is English and CEIBS faculty can choose to be based in Shanghai, Beijing or Shenzhen in China, or Zurich in Switzerland.

Applicants must have a Ph.D. (or equivalent) in accounting. They should have strong communication skills, a strong commitment to excellence in scholarly research and teaching, and a team-oriented attitude. Associate and full professor applicants should have a proven track record of exceptional scholarship in accounting. Preference will be given to those who have relevant teaching experience, especially with executive and MBA students. The successful candidate will join a diverse and growing Department as part of a leading business school.

Salary is internationally competitive and commensurate with qualifications. In addition, the school offers many generous benefits, including housing and child education allowances, medical insurance, and a pension plan. Moreover, to support excellence in academic research, CEIBS offers generous research funding, teaching load reductions or bonuses for high-caliber publications, and a reduced teaching load for the first three years.

To apply, please visit the website of <http://apply.interfolio.com/110554> to submit your application, which includes a cover letter, curriculum vitae, job market paper, relevant evidence of teaching effectiveness, and three reference letters (for assistant professor applicants)/the names of three scholars willing to evaluate your research and teaching ability (for senior applicants). Inquiries may be sent to Ms. Daisy Li in our Dean's Office at ldaisy@ceibs.edu. Applications will be kept confidential and reviewed until the positions are filled.
