The Opportunity

The Department of Accounting is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and the preparation of accounting professionals through high-quality teaching and research. The division promotes a culture of vibrant and collaborative research and various educational programs. Our team is committed to delivering excellent education courses, and impactful engagement activities with deep industry connections.

As a Lecturer/ Senior Lecturer in Accounting, you will be responsible for:

- Developing and delivering accounting courses at both the undergraduate and postgraduate level
- Demonstrating a scholarly approach to learning and teaching
- Contributing to disciplinary teaching pedagogy, research, and business development
- Maintaining professional relationships
- Conducting and publishing, or otherwise disseminating high-quality and/or high-impact research either as a team member or independently and publications from that research in Accounting Information Systems and related areas

As a candidate for the Lecturer/Senior Lecturer position, you will have a PhD in Accounting, and well-developed understanding and experience in teaching Accounting Information Systems and/or Accounting Analytics. These positions aim to enhance expertise in sustainability and management accounting, requiring candidates to contribute to these areas of specialisation. You will also have a solid research background, with a commitment to publish in quality journals, have some experience in teaching in a tertiary environment and possess a high level of interpersonal skills. Your demonstrated experience working in a collegiate manner will add value to this role.

You will work with the highest calibre of staff and students in a cooperative and motivating environment with state-of-the-art facilities and infrastructure across Monash's campuses.

Diversity is one of our greatest strengths at Monash. We encourage applications from First Nations people, culturally and linguistically diverse people, people with disabilities, neurodiverse people, and people of all genders, sexualities, and age groups.

Join the pursuit of our purpose to build a better future for ourselves and our communities – #Changelt with us.

Monash avidly supports flexible and hybrid working arrangements. We have a range of policies in place enabling staff to combine work and personal commitments more easily.

At Monash University, we are committed to being a Child Safe organisation. This position at the University will require the incumbent to hold a valid Working with Children Check.

Your application must address the selection criteria. Please refer to "How to apply for Monash Jobs".
