

1 PROFESSOR (Assistant/Associate or Full) in FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING or AUDITING (Paris Campus)

In response to its continuous growth, IÉSEG School of Management is looking for a full-time professor in Financial Accounting and/or Auditing at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level (Paris Campus, starting September 2025). He/She/They will be a part of the department of “Accounting”.

ABOUT IÉSEG SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

IÉSEG holds the “triple crown” of international accreditations (AACSB, AMBA & EQUIS) and is a member of the “Conférence des Grandes Écoles”. The school offers Bachelor, Master and Post-Graduate Degrees as well as Executive Education programs. IÉSEG is also one of the leading French business schools in terms of research. The IÉSEG Research Center is accredited by the French CNRS (National Center for Scientific Research). Our Lille Campus is in the heart of Northern France (within the triangle made up by London, Paris and Brussels), and our Paris Campus is in the largest European business district of “La Défense”. More information on the school can be found here: www.ieseg.fr/en

ABOUT THE ACCOUNTING DEPARTMENT

The department consists of 25+ members who teach and perform research in the areas of Financial Accounting, Auditing, Taxation and Management Control on both campuses. Faculty members specializing in Financial Accounting have been successful in publishing their research papers in top-tier refereed international journals in areas of (amongst others): international accounting standards; accounting for intangibles; auditing; financial reporting quality in public and private firms; transfer pricing and income shifting; governance and financial reporting; and corporate social responsibility.

The school provides ample resources to support research and has a comparative advantage in promoting cross-disciplinary research that is quintessential for the modern business world. The school is supportive for conducting an innovative research agenda that is relevant for both theoretical substance as well as practical business insights. In addition, the school also subscribes to several public data providers such as WRDS, Thomson Reuters Eikon, DataStream and Bloomberg among others. IÉSEG has built an excellent network with overseas institutions for collaborative work and exchanges.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The position includes both a research and teaching mission. The balance between both will be adjusted to the selected candidate’s profile.

Research will be a strong focus of the selected candidate as he/she/they will contribute to the vibrant research community at IESEG. He/she/they is therefore expected to hold a PhD and have a strong publication record (or potential for Assistant Professors) in top-tier refereed journals listed in AJG.

In terms of teaching, the selected candidate will teach courses in Financial Accounting at the undergraduate, graduate and/or postgraduate level. In addition, he/she/they will contribute to the development of the Department's programs. As such, we are looking for candidates with strong pedagogical skills, and who are fluent in English, as most courses are taught in this language. Professional experience and knowledge of French are a plus, but not a requirement.

We are looking for candidates who embody our core values of Accomplishment, Responsibility, Integrity, Solidarity, and Engagement, and fit our diverse and international culture in which 50 nationalities are represented. IÉSEG places great value on diversity and inclusion, and we therefore encourage applications from all backgrounds. Underrepresented groups in academia (notably women, minority ethnic groups, people identifying as LGBTQIA+, people with a (non-) visible disability, and people from lower socio-economic backgrounds and/or economically developing countries) are particularly encouraged to apply, as we are highly committed to ensuring that IÉSEG reflects and benefits from the diversity present in society.

WORKING AT IÉSEG

At IÉSEG, we are committed to providing a supportive and engaging work environment. To new faculty members (and their partner), we offer a wide range of resources to help them integrate into the country, culture and school, such as individualized French language courses, a relocation allowance, and housing search assistance. Moreover, all faculty members have access to a competitive salary, as well as benefits such as French social security, a complementary health insurance, meal vouchers, a profit-sharing plan, and a contributory pension scheme. Finally, the school actively promotes research, provides resources for active scholars (e.g., funding for conferences and data collection) and offers competitive financial bonuses for high quality international peer-reviewed research publications.
