TENURE TRACK OR TENURED (OPEN RANK) FACULTY POSITIONS IN ACCOUNTING

The School of Accountancy (SOA) at Singapore Management University (SMU) invites applications for openings of tenure track or tenured faculty positions in accounting with employment commencing 1 July 2027.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants for the position must have a PhD in Accounting or related fields, or anticipate to obtain the PhD degree before joining. SOA is looking for individuals who demonstrate significant achievements or potential in scholarly research as well as ability and promise in teaching excellence in both undergraduate and postgraduate courses. To be considered for a rank above Assistant Professor, an excellent record of scholarly research activities and teaching that is consistent with a senior-level faculty appointment is required.

ABOUT SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTANCY

The School of Accountancy has built an outstanding reputation for its significant contributions to accounting research and high-quality accounting education; it is currently ranked amongst the top ten accounting schools in the world (Brigham Young University rankings) and counts world-class scholars and business leaders as part of its team. The School's research is both academic-driven and practice oriented; it offers holistic education underpinning its suite of distinctive programmes - the Bachelor of Accountancy (BAcc), the Master of Professional Accounting (MPA), the Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) (Data & Analytics) and the PhD in Accounting – as well as coveted thought leadership and broad collaboration with businesses and society. Please visit <https://accountancy.smu.edu.sg/> for more information on the School.
