ORGANISERS' WELCOME

Dear EAA Members,

On behalf of the Local Organizing Committee (LOC), we would like to warmly welcome you to the EAA 2022 Congress in Bergen hosted by Norwegian School of Economics (NHH)!

After two years of covid- we finally can meet physically again! Listen, ask, engage, mingle, meet friends and colleagues over a cup of coffee, a lunch, a dinner, a drink, a stroll...

AND we offer you the city of Bergen- the gateway to the Fjords! Do not miss the opportunity to go sightseeing in the small, narrow streets, visit Bryggen, the top of mountain Fløyen or Ulriken, take a day trip to the fjords.

We are living an era of disruption, characterized by major and sometimes unexpected changes in many dimensions, from climate to health, from peace to war, social interactions to the way we learn and conduct scientific research. Our congress intends to be an occasion to reflect on such changes and learn how to make the most of them.

The congress will start at NHH, and then we move to downtown Bergen. We will have an opening speech by the CEO of the Norwegian sovereign fund showing how Norway became rich, but did not spoil the money. We have moved the opening speech and the Gala Dinner to Wednesday evening as a test- and want to have your response afterwards.

The opening session with awards will be followed by 9 symposia and 216 presentation sessions, including parallel sessions with discussion, regular parallel sessions and research fora, for a total of 685 presented papers. Also, there will be a round-table conversation on diversity, another very relevant topic for the EAA and its members.

Of course, we did not forget about social events! Don't miss the dinners as fantastic places like mount Ulriken, mount Fløyen, at Bryggen or on a fjord cruise! Or, take the Norway-in-a nutshell-trip on Saturday (or any other day). Book directly on the EAA conference pages.

We are deeply grateful to our sponsors for supporting this EAA Congress. A very special thank you to Baha Diyarov for his invaluable help, to all the members of the LOC, and all the congress participants who volunteered to help as discussants, session chairs, and room hosts. We are grateful to all of them, and we are proud of being part of such a great (and fun) team!

We wish you all a pleasant and productive EAA Congress and look forward to meeting you all in person in (hopefully sunny) Bergen!

Finn Kinserdal

EAA 2022 Congress chair NHH Bergen

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Dear Congress Delegates,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 44th Annual Congress of the European Accounting Association in the wonderful city of Bergen!

After almost three years from the last on-site congress in Paphos, we can finally meet again in person. Many things have happened since then, with the first EAA Virtual Congress and the launch of several new EAA initiatives. Thanks to these initiatives, our association is more lively than ever, and the high number of delegates attending this first in-person event since the start of the pandemic is a clear indicator of that.

More than 1,100 delegates from 49 different countries are attending this year Congress: 83% from Europe, 9.7% from North America, 1.7% from Australia/New Zealand, 3.8% from Asia and 1.8% from the rest of the world. Out of the total delegates, 27% are PhD students, a record percentage compared to past congresses. As per tradition, our young scholars will have the chance to attend the Ph.D. forum just before the official start of the congress (on May 11), a great opportunity for them to network and gain insights into academic accounting research, its challenges and opportunities. Also, a selected group of 40 PhD students will have the chance to present their projects and receive feedback from a distinguished faculty during the traditional Doctoral Colloquium that precedes the Congress (May 7-10), co-chaired by Joachim Gassen, Andrea Mennicken and Alexandra Van den Abbeele. The record number of 157 applications received this year for the DC is a great result and confirms the success of this well-consolidated EAA initiative.

This year congress features a very rich program. About 700 papers will be presented in parallel sessions and research fora. Out of those, more than 100 will have the chance to receive ad-hoc feedback in parallel sessions with discussant. Also, 9 symposia are planned, with panelists from academia, standard setting and practice invited to discuss the most up-to-date topics. This year, one of the most popular subjects for both presented papers and symposia is sustainability, a clear evidence of the desire and of the ability of the accounting scholars to contribute to the debate around this fundamental issue. The congress program is completed by a number of complementary activities, such as a Sustainable Futures Education Workshop, an IFRS Foundation Workshop and a Diversity Breakfast (check the detailed program for times and locations!).

I would like to express my gratitude to the Norwegian School of Economics and to the Local Organizing Committee that, under the leadership of Finn Kinserdal, made this Congress possible. The uncertainties and the many limitations that characterized the last few months made the organization of this year's congress particularly challenging. Many thanks also to the Standing Scientific Committee, chaired by Ileana Steccolini, to the Conference Committee, chaired by Caren Schelleman (and previously Matias Laine), and to the other EAA Committees (too many to list here!) who have contributed with their continuous effort and generous commitment to the success of the Congress. A very special thank you also to Baha Diyarov, the EAA Executive Secretary, for his invaluable help and his dedication to the EAA.

On a personal note, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to the members of the Management Committee, that I am honored to chair, and in particular to Thorsten Sellhorn, who is ending his term as EAA Past President. It was a privilege and a pleasure for me to work with him during the last two years, surely among the most challenging for our association.

On behalf of the EAA, I would finally like to express my gratitude to all the sponsors and exhibitors for supporting this year's Congress: IMA, KPMG, Telenor, Den Norske Revisorforening, EFRAG, AIPCA-CIMA, Cengage, HubroEducation, Ideagen, NowPublishers, NRG Metrics, Wiley.

Before ending this message, allow me a final thought for our Ukrainian colleagues who cannot be with us this year. The EAA stands in solidarity with all the Ukrainian people who are being tragically affected by the war and are seeing their lives devastated by it. We hope that the attacks on their country will end soon and that they can safely regain possession of their lives. We look forward to having our Ukrainian members back with us.

While hoping for better times to come soon, I wish all of you an inspiring and productive EAA Annual Congress!

EFRAG

EFRAG is a private association established in 2001 with the encouragement of the European Commission. EFRAG's mission is to serve the European public interest in both financial reporting and sustainability reporting by developing and promoting European views in the field of corporate reporting and by developing draft EU Sustainability Reporting Standards. In its financial reporting activities, EFRAG ensures that the European views are properly considered in the IASB's standard-setting process and in related international debates. EFRAG ultimately provides advice to the European Commission on whether newly issued or revised IFRS Standards meet the criteria of the IAS Regulation for endorsement for use in the EU, including whether endorsement would be conducive to the European public good. In its sustainability reporting activities EFRAG provides technical advice to the European Commission in the form of draft EU Sustainability Reporting Standards accompanied by bases of conclusions and cost benefit analysis including impact analysis. EFRAG is operating in a fast-evolving environment. It is attentive to the need to adapt its activities to meet new opportunities and challenges in corporate reporting.

NRG Metrics

NRG Metrics is created in 2016 from a team of market professionals and academic researchers on the field of corporate governance. By concentrating the experience and the knowledge from various types of academic backgrounds such as corporate finance, accounting, and management and of course corporate governance, we decided to create an independent corporate governance research firm. Our mission is to provide reliable data on corporate governance of listed companies around the world. In those years we managed to create 7 different Datasets (Corporate Governance, Ownership Structure, Directors and Officers, Family Firms, Compensation, Audit and CSR). NRG Metrics is not a static database. Every year we improve its content, both in terms of sample and in terms of new variables by creating new datasets. Our goal is to establish NRG Metrics as the most comprehensive ESG database.

SOCIAL EVENTS 2022

Early bird reception in Håkonshallen

Tuesday 10 May from 18:00-20:00

Håkon's Hall is more than seven hundred and fifty years old and was built by King Håkon Håkonsson between 1247 and 1261 as a royal residence and feasting hall. When the king's son Magnus Håkonsson Lagabøte married the Danish Princess Ingeborg in 1261, 2000 guests were hosted in three buildings. "Kings held court in the stone hall", as the sagas say.

At that time Bergen was Norway's largest and most important city, and Håkon's Hall was the site of major national events, including the promulgation of Norway's first complete set of laws. Within the thick stone walls you can still hear the echoes of the medieval court's solemn ceremonies and riotous feasts. As a site of national heritage, Håkon's Hall is still in use for royal dinners and other official occasions.

PHD FORUM 2022

Wednesday, 11th May 2022 - 08:00-12:00

The EAA PhD Forum, launched in 2013, is an initiative of the EAA to help and promote PhD students in accounting. The PhD Forum is part of the EAA Annual Congress.

The PhD Forum will take place on Wednesday 11th May 2022 from 08.00 to 12.00hrs.

The PhD Forum is a great opportunity for research master students, PhD students as well as for Assistant Professors or Lecturers in Accounting who do not have a permanent position yet, or Postdocs in Accounting to network and gain insight into academic accounting research and its environment through the speakers. The Forum, which is open to PhD students pursuing research in any topic areas (financial accounting, managerial accounting, audit, tax, etc.) and using any research method (analytical modelling, behavioural, case study, empirical-archival, etc.) related to the EAA, may also provide information as to how to establish contacts for entering the job market.

Please address questions to Juan Manuel GARCÍA LARA (jmglara@emp.uc3m.es).

Objectives

- To complement EAA's offering in terms of doctoral education and emerging scholar promotion;
- To foster networking of doctoral students with established scholars and each other;
- To increase the visibility of EAA and its Accounting Resources Center (ARC) within the community of doctoral students.

AGENDA

08:00 – 08:15 Welcome coffee & tea

08:15 – 08:20 Welcoming address

Annalisa PRENCIPE (Bocconi University, EAA President)

Finn KINSERDAL (Norwegian School of Economics, EAA Congress Chair)

08:20 – 08:50 Update on PhD activities and EAA Accounting Resources Centre

Tami DINH (University of St. Gallen)

08:50 – 10:00 Plenary session - Auditorium A

Beatriz GARCÍA OSMA (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, European Accounting Review editor):
Reflections on the publication and refereeing process.

IFRS FOUNDATION EVENTS

IFRS Foundation Workshop: Third Agenda Consultation

IASB Workshop

Wednesday 11 May 8:30-12:00 Auditorium M at NHH

Presenters: Anne McGeachin IFRS Foundation Accounting Technical Staff, Ana Simpson IFRS Foundation Accounting Technical Staff and Ann Tarca IASB Member

This workshop will give participants an opportunity to hear about recent developments in projects on the IASB's standard setting and research agendas. We will give an update on the IASB's current work programme. We will also discuss digital reporting issues, including feedback from the recent Agenda Consultation and how digital reporting is being considered in IASB projects such as Primary Financial Statements. We will discuss research opportunities in relation to the IASB's standard setting and research agendas. The session will be interactive and should be useful for people engaged in teaching IFRS Standards and those conducting research about the impact of IFRS Standards.

The PPT can be downloaded here.

Here is detailed info re IFRS Workshop Wednesday at NHH 08.30-12.00:

- Buses leave from ZanderK Hotel at the Bergen Railway station (on the mountain side) at 0745. Bus says 'EAA-NHH'. Busses for the PhD Forum leaves from same place from 07.15; so you only take these buses if there are free seats.
- IFRS Workshop will be held at NHH (Norwegian School of Economics- 'Norges handelshøyskole' – Helleveien 30). Taxi (ap 30 Euro) or public busses (leave from Bryggen)- 10 minutes ride - are alternatives.
- IFRS Workshop starts at 08:30. Delegates should register first at the main NHH entrance in the registration tent. Staff will be waiting for you at the bus-stop and guide you to the entrance.
- There will be coffee/water/pastries when arriving/throughout – but no breakfast (served at the hotels). A lunch-bag will be delivered in the room at 11:30.
- The Auditorium is Auditorium M ('Mossin') – up the main stairs and second room (3rd and 4th door) on the left.

- NB: Opening sessions starts at 12.15 very sharp..- doors close... 2 minutes' walk to the 'Aula'.
- Busses for everyone returns to Zander K Hotel from 1645-17.15 just outside NHH, or you may take every public bus going to 'Brygge' (NB not through the tunnel).

IFRS Foundation Breakfast Update: Primary Financial Statements

Thursday, 12 May 7:30-8:50 Zander K Hotel (Please ask at the reception where the meeting room is. You will also find the room on the screen display at the hotel)

Presenters: Anne McGeachin IFRS Foundation Accounting Technical Staff, Ana Simpson IFRS Foundation Accounting Technical Staff and Ann Tarca IASB Member

This session will provide an update on the IASB's Primary Financial Statements project. We will provide an overview of the feedback on the Exposure Draft General Presentation and Disclosures and the IASB's redeliberations to date, and engage in dialogue with the audience to explore their views of the proposals.

The Primary Financial Statements project is developing targeted improvements to the structure and content of the primary financial statements, with a focus on the statement(s) of financial performance. The project is part of the Board's plan to promote better communication in financial reporting and responds to demands from users for better and more comparable financial information.

The Board has gathered evidence from academia and practice that suggests the usefulness of financial information could be enhanced by changes to requirements of IFRS Standards relating to the presentation of the financial statements. The project includes the development of proposals on defined subtotals in the statement(s) of financial performance, management performance measures and improved disaggregation.

The PPT can be downloaded here.

CLASSROOM SESSION

"Integrating Data Analytics into Your Accounting Courses Using Power BI"

Wednesday, 11 May - 15:30-17:00 Room C-314 (Boardroom) at NHH (3rd floor of the main NHH building). It may be reached by elevator or stairs.

Accountants provide information for decision making. Data analytics that support data driven decisions has become an integral part of what accountants do. Data analytics projects require an integrated skill set:

- Data preparation. Integrating data from multiple sources, cleaning and transform these data, and restructuring them to make analytics easy.
- Information modeling. Building formulas to convert these data into the information needed for analytical purposes.
- Data exploration. Sorting and filtering the data and information in many ways to find insights that can impact a business' decision-making.

Accounting students that are able to prepare data, build information models, explore data, and interpret and communicate insights are in high demand.

This hands-on classroom session presents an integrated case that requires students to go through the different phases of a data analytics project: from data to insights. The software used for the integrated case is Microsoft Power BI, a business intelligence/data analytics tool developed with Excel users in mind. The session has three parts, each taking about thirty minutes. For each part, we will do some hands-on exercises, discuss the importance of the skills learned, and discuss how to integrate such skills into the accounting curriculum.

Data Preparation. Using Power BI's ETL tool, Power Query, we will extract data and do some basic data preparation exercises such as unpivoting a table. We will briefly discuss data preparation issues important for accounting students to learn such as incorrect, inconsistent, invalid, and incomplete data.

Information Modeling. Using Power BI's Data Analysis eXpressions (DAX) language, we will create a simple information model. We briefly discuss the importance of information modeling for data analytics projects: the richer the information model, the richer the analytics. Concepts such as Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) will be linked to information modeling.

Data Exploration. Data exploration is the discovery process of looking for something new and previously unknown. It involves looking for patterns, outliers, or, more generally, for insights. An insight is an observation that might significantly affect a business' decision-making. We will illustrate how Power BI makes it easy to explore different data relationships (e.g., time series) for insights using visualizations (e.g., a line chart). We will briefly discuss how data exploration can be integrated into the accounting curriculum.

The overall goal of these exercises is to create a data-driven mindset: understanding the difference between good and bad data, how data should be structured for analytical purposes, the difference between data and information, what questions can be answered from a given data set, what data relationships can be investigated, what insights can be provided by the different data relationships, how can insights be visualized, how to interpret insights, and so much more. Part of our discussion will focus on possible pedagogies to create such a data-driven mindset.

SYMPOSIA PROGRAMME

SYMPOSIUM 1

FAIR GLOBAL TAXES – HOW ACCOUNTING AND TAX RESEARCH CAN HELP TO ESTABLISH FAIR GLOBAL TAXES

Wednesday May 11, 13:30 – 15:00

NHH AUDITORIUM A

The OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (IF) has agreed a two-pillar solution to address the tax challenges arising from the digitalization of the economy. The new tax system promises to allocate a higher share of tax revenues to end-market countries and help to fight tax avoidance and increase compliance and fair distribution of tax revenues. Critics, however, have argued that it will complicate reporting for multinational businesses and have little effect on the efficiency of the international tax system.

SYMPOSIUM 2

IN SEARCH OF CONNECTIVITY BETWEEN SUSTAINABILITY REPORTING AND FINANCIAL REPORTING

Wednesday May 11, 15:30 – 17:00

NHH AUDITORIUM A

Worldwide and especially in Europe, the companies reporting landscape is drastically changing. Soon ISSB and EFRAG will both start to issue standards in the sustainability reporting domain. In addition to their financial statements, companies will have to publish mandatory sustainability information in the very near future, so users will have two sets of information. Connectivity together with two related aspects becomes key: the materiality approach that characterizes the two sets and their assurance. This symposium would like to delve deeper in these connectivity-related issues and know the panel members' views about the relevant issues.

THE MODERN CFO

Thursday 12 May, 11:00 – 12:30

GRIEGHALLEN, PEER GYNT

The adoption and deployment of digital technologies create new opportunities for improvements in modern organizations. Automatization and real-time data collection, analysis, and reporting enable use of more frequent and detailed performance measures and decision supports. Knowledge about how these digital technologies interact with CFOs responsibility and organizations management control system is in its infancy. McKinsey (2021) show in their survey that the CFO's responsibility have grown the recent years related to the organizations' digitalization. One finding in their study is that the share of finance leaders that are responsible for the digital activities has more than tripled the last five years. The symposium addresses implications for the CFO role and finance function.

ACCOUNTING FOR CLIMATE CHANGE: OPPORTUNITIES FOR MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING

Thursday 12 May, 14:00-15:30

GRIEGHALLEN, PEER GYNT

Governments, businesses, and communities are calling for response to global climate change. Organizations of every size and industry are considering how to respond to new stakeholder expectations to reduce their carbon footprints and align corporate activities to planetary limits.

Management accountants have the competencies to develop decarbonization plans that align with a business' purpose, values, business model, and strategy. Developing these plans include meaningful senior management action and multidisciplinary partnering. The world needs the skill set and the ethics of the profession to build an accounting ecosystem that meets the evolving demands of its stakeholders and a safe operating space for humanity.

EAR SYMPOSIUM: PREREGISTERED STUDIES: A WAY TO MAKE THE REVIEW PROCESS MORE PRODUCTIVE AND FUN?

Thursday 12 May, 16:00-17:30

GRIEGHALLEN, PEER GYNT

The purpose of this symposium is to discuss the concept of preregistered studies from the perspective of editors, reviewers, authors and readers. The editorial team of the European Accounting Review considers establishing a track in our annual conference where proposals for preregistered studies will be presented for feedback. Introducing preregistration into the review process implies a two-stage process, where first a study plan is submitted for review and then, after successful completing the first stage of the review process, at the second stage the completed study is only reviewed to verify that it has been diligently executed in its preregistered form and that its findings are clearly communicated. We will discuss the benefits and costs of such a process across methods and fields present in accounting research.

CHAIRS:

Beatriz Garcia Osma (Carlos III, Madrid; Editor EAR) and Joachim Gassen (Humboldt University, Berlin)

SYMPOSIUM 7

APPROACHING SUSTAINABILITY THROUGH ACCOUNTING EDUCATION

Friday 13 May, 09:00 – 10:30

GRIEGHALLEN, PEER GYNT

“The development of ecological understanding is not simply another subject to be learnt but a fundamental change in the way we view the world.” (John Lyle, 1996)

The education committee symposium will discuss the role of accounting education in creating a sustainable future, as we redesign curricula and rethink pedagogy. This will involve a discussion around how educators need to play a leading role in integrating sustainability into all parts of the curriculum, but also contribute towards ‘sustainability literacy’.

CHAIR:

Gia Chevis (Baylor University, USA)

PANEL MEMBERS:

Charles Cho (York University, Canada)

Ken McPhail (Alliance Manchester Business School, UK)

Adriana Florina Popa (Bucharest University of Economic Studies; Member of IFAC International Panel on Accountancy Education)

Brigitte de Graaff (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, IMA’s Chair of Global Sustainable Business Management Global Task Force)

SYMPOSIUM 8

EFRAG SYMPOSIUM DIGITAL CORPORATE REPORTING - WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR STANDARD SETTING?

Friday 13 May, 11:00 – 12:30

GRIEGHALLEN, PEER GYNT

Digitalisation of corporate reporting information is changing the manner information is prepared and consumed. In the EU, with recent initiatives such as the European Single Electronic Format for financial reporting and the European Single Access Point (ESAP) for public financial and sustainability-related information, tagged information is becoming available on more types of information which will allow users to examine connections between financial and non-financial information.

From a corporate reporting standard-setting perspective, digitalisation poses a number of issues and opportunities that need to be looked at:

- How can the objective to provide comparable and machine-readable information be combined with the need to provide entity-specific information that is relevant and reliable. In that respect, will digitalisation be an enabler or an inhibitor towards more useful information for users for decision-making and stewardship assessment?
- How can principles-based Standards be developed and drafted in a way that integrates and facilitate digitalisation? Is digitalisation affecting financial and sustainability reporting standard settings differently?
- Will digitalisation facilitate evidence-based standard-setting and regulation (including academic research)?
- Will digitalisation make the access to corporate information more difficult for some categories of users?
- What will be the effect of digitalisation on continuous / on demand / period independent reporting?
- How will digitalisation affect the way standards are endorsed in the EU including on EFRAG's activity in providing endorsement advice to the European Commission regarding the endorsement technical criteria (understandability, relevance, reliability and comparability, and true and fair view).

All these questions and others will be addressed at the EFRAG Symposium which involves the following contributors:

Chiara Del Prete (EFRAG Financial Reporting TEG Chairwoman)

Tommaso Fabi (Technical Director Italian Standard Setter OIC, EFRAG Financial Reporting TEG member)

Nicklas Grip (former EFRAG Financial Reporting TEG Vice-Chair, Senior Vice President, Head of Regulatory Strategies at Group Finance, Svenska Handelsbanken)

Kai Morten Hagen (Technical Director Norwegian institute of Public Accountants, Board member of IAASB and vice chair of Auditing and Assurance Policy Group of Accountancy Europe)

Teodor Sveen Nilsen (financial analyst, SpareBank1 Market)

Annalisa Prencipe (EAA President, Full Professor Department of Accounting Bocconi University)

Saskia Slomp (EFRAG CEO)

SPONSOR:

SYMPOSIUM 9

ACCOUNTING IN EUROPE: "CORPORATE DISCLOSURES: RESEARCH GAPS AND POLICY IMPLICATIONS"

Friday 13 May, 14:00 – 15:30

GRIEGHALLEN, PEER GYNT

With the ongoing joint special issue of Accounting in Europe and The British Accounting Review aimed at stimulating the debate about the status quo and future directions on corporate disclosures, this symposium will bring together international academic and practitioner perspectives and insights on the challenges, recent developments, emerging trends and opportunities in this area.

CHAIR:

Andrei Filip (ESSEC Business School; Editor, Accounting in Europe)

PANEL MEMBERS:

Niamh Brennan (University College Dublin)

Kjell Ove Røsok (NHH, Norwegian School of Economics)

SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE REPORT

The 2022 EAA conference is expected to take place in presence, at the moment of writing this report, after 2021 having taken place completely online.

The 2022 conference, as usual, consists of research fora, parallel sessions and parallel sessions with discussants. Research fora (RF) are those sessions where papers which are the initial stages of development are presented, whereas parallel session (PS) host more developed papers, closer to publication. Among the latter, a group is usually selected to be presented and discussed by experts in the relevant areas (PSD sessions).

941 papers were submitted for the 2022 conference. Of these, 95 were rejected, and 685 are expected to be presented at the conference (see table 1), in research fora (328), parallel sessions (250), and parallel sessions with discussants (107). Table 1 also provides the breakdown of sessions for each category. During the process of discussant allocation, it was noticed that not many colleagues volunteer for this role. It was thus agreed with Caren Schellemans that it would be important in the future to identify ways to encourage more colleagues to offer their availability as discussants.

This year, the members of the Standing Scientific Committee include Martine Cools, Mara Cameran, Aytekin Ertan, Urska Kosi, Matias Laine, Edith Leung, Jochen Pierk, Petya Platikanova, Georg Schneider, MariaFrancesca Sicilia and Ileana Steccolini. Mariannunziata Liguori will be joining starting after the EAA 2022 conference. The members of the SSC remain in charge for three years (renewable). All the colleagues whose first mandates ended in 2022 (Urska Kosi, Matias Laine, Georg Schneider, MariaFrancesca Sicilia, Ileana Steccolini) were confirmed again.

In closing this report, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the members of the EAA Scientific Committee, the Standing Scientific Committee, Baha Diyarov and the conference Organizers for their great support in managing a significant number of papers, allowing us to conclude the review process on time and the authors to be notified of relevant decisions. I also wish to welcome Mariannunziata Liguori in the SSC.

Ileana Steccolini, Essex Business School, University of Essex, UK
Chair of the EAA Standing Scientific Committee
