EAA PhD Forum 2016

Jonas Heese

Observations

- Primary tenure track performance metric across most European schools is number of publications in top journals, and required number of publications for tenure increases.
- Most demand for archival (financial accounting) researchers.
- Being a high-quality teacher becomes more important.
- Selecting a PhD program that prepares you adequately is of first order importance to be successful in this environment.

Features of such a PhD program

- Supervisor (or someone in unit) has published in a top journal.
- Supervisor has time for you.
- PhD courses.
- Funding to attend conferences.
- Regular workshops.
- Own teaching responsibility.
- Supervisor is connected to U.S. schools.
- Possibility to visit U.S. school.
- Job market success of prior PhD students.
