

INTERNATIONAL ACCESSIBILITY

Cyprus is served by two International Airports; Larnaca International Airport (LCA), and Paphos International Airport (PFO). More than 80 International Airlines connect Cyprus to the whole world; for more details regarding flights to/from Cyprus, please visit the official website of both airports at www.hermesairports.com. Furthermore, domestic communication between both airports and all the major cities on the island is very quick and easy via an extensive highway system.

Larnaca International Airport (LCA) – the island’s main airport, 80 minutes from Paphos town via the extensive highway system

Paphos International Airport (PFO) – 10 minutes from Paphos town
