

Call for Papers

International Conference

“Future Directions in Accounting and Finance Education”

with a special issue of the Journal of Accounting Education

Moscow, Russia, 27-28 May, 2019

The Financial University under the Government of Russian Federation is pleased to announce its annual international conference “Future Directions in Accounting and Finance Education”, to be held in Moscow on 27-28 May 2019. The conference welcomes research papers, teaching cases, teaching notes, and best practices related to accounting and finance education. The conference is designed to provide:

- ✓ a setting for constructive discussions of papers related to innovations, new perspectives, future challenges, critical assessments and best practices in accounting and finance education;
- ✓ a forum for presenting emerging and full papers;
- ✓ workshops aimed to facilitate researchers to develop ideas for research projects or discuss current work and ideas;
- ✓ opportunities for accounting educators to identify partners (or institutions) for collaborative research and a network of continuing support amongst attendees.

Keynote Speakers

Professor Natalie Tatiana Churyk, the William F. Doyle Endowed Professor of Accountancy at Northern Illinois University (NIU), Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Accounting Education

Professor Alan Sangster, Professor of Accounting, Chair of Accounting History, Aberdeen University

Professor Gregory Neil Stoner, Professor of Accounting, University of Glasgow, Editor of the Accounting Education

Papers (written in English) should be submitted in Word format no later February, 15, 2019 to: acceducationge@gmail.com. Please make sure that no author information is disclosed in the submitted Word document, and that author and co-author contact information is provided in the email. Submitted papers will be subject to a regular double blind peer review process. Papers may be either full papers or emerging ideas papers. Conference acceptance/presentation does not guarantee publication in the special issue of Journal of Accounting Education.

Key Dates

15 February 2019 --> Paper pre-submission deadline

15 March 2019 --> Notification to participants about papers' acceptance or rejection for conference

01 April 2019 --> Deadline for registration of authors of accepted conference papers

Submissions to the Journal are separate from the conference. Subject to editorial review and approval, accepted manuscripts will be published in a Special Issue of the Journal of Accounting Education (<http://www.journals.elsevier.com/journal-of-accounting-education>).

The guest editors of the Special Issue are:

Anna Vysotskaya (Southern Federal University, Russia)

Berend van der Kolk (IE Business School, IE University, Spain)

Submissions, open to conference attendees only, for the special issue should be made electronically through web-site of the journal starting 28 May 2019. The deadline for the final journal submissions is 1 November 2019. Details will follow.