

The Mediterranean Accounting Conference (TMAC 2026)

Chania/Crete, Greece | June 14-17, 2026

Call for Papers

The Organizing Committee of the Mediterranean Accounting Conference (TMAC) is pleased to announce the Call for Papers for the 2nd TMAC Conference, to be held on June 14–17, 2026, at the Minoa Palace Resort in Chania, Crete.

Following the great success of our inaugural TMAC in 2025, we are excited to build on that momentum. Co-organized by Tel Aviv University and the University of Cyprus, TMAC brings together leading academics, researchers, and professionals to discuss the latest developments and innovative research in accounting and related fields.

We are pleased to announce the invited speakers for the 2026 conference:

- Ronald A. Dye, Northwestern University
- Wayne Landsman, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
- Mohan Venkatachalam, Duke University
- Joanna Wu, University of Rochester

Paper selection will be based on novelty and incremental contribution to the accounting literature.

Submitted papers must not have been previously published.
